

Fabian Society:

The Fabian Society was founded in 1884 by Edward Pease, Frank Podmore and Hubert Bland.

The name comes from the Roman General Quintus Fabius Maximus Cunctator which means “The Delayer”.

Fabians seek to change society and governments to their SOCIALIST ideals by delaying their goals and using the stealth of “gradualism” just as General Fabius did against Hannibal.

By exploiting the natural tendency of all politicians to concentrate power, the Fabians have worked at supporting legislation to empower bureaucracy, thereby undermining Parliament and thus destroying the rights of individuals.

The Fabian coat of Arms was originally the WOLF IN SHEEPS CLOTHING, that may have been a bit to telling as it has now been replaced with the TORTOISE which portrays slow and steady, the motto of their TORTOISE is “WHEN I STRIKE, I STRIKE HARD”.

Fabians in Australia first appeared in Melbourne (1885-1895). Early activities were initiated in 1885 by Henry Hyde Champion one of the original founding members of the London Fabian Society. A more formal Melbourne Fabian Society was established later in 1895.

Adelaide (1891). The first overseas branch of the UK Fabian Society was founded by Rev Charles Marson. Marson, who had joined the Fabians in London in 1885, recruited trade unionists and reformers like David Charleston and Robert Guthrie. This branch operated until 1902.

Victoria (1947). The modern era began with the re-establishment of the Victorian branch in 1947 by figures including Jim Cairns, who later became Deputy Prime Minister. The branch eventually became the national Australian Fabian Society in 1984.

The Fabius Maximus of Australia was Gough Whitlam, the list of Politicians who are members of the Fabians is horrifically large.

The list of Fabian policies, publications and conferences is awesome and leaves absolutely no doubt as to their political intent.

The Fabian Society is a KEY COMPONENT of the global mechanism that is the principal tenet of MARXISM, the abolition of private property, in this case to own land. They then align themselves with the non-violent arm of MARXISM by accepting the non-violent road of patient gradualism to total government.

Here is a list of some of The Fabians of Australia.

Why this Matters for my challenge:

Using these names alongside my historic list (Whitlam, Hawke, Keating) helps me prove the "continuous line of influence" I am targeting. By naming current Ministers like Albanese and Bowen alongside their Fabian contributions, I can argue that their policy direction particularly regarding international agreements like those from the WHO, WEF or UN is evidence of the "split allegiance" I believe violates Section 44.

If I use this list in a High Court challenge, I can frame it as "While these officials are sworn to the Australian people, their active leadership and ideological adherence to a society that prioritizes international 'permeation' creates a conflict with their Constitutional Oath".

However a High Court Challenge would be on the Constitutional legality of the Oaths of Office they have been using since 1973, so keep that in mind because that is the corner stone of a challenge to be made.

I welcome you to research each of these names to see who they are and what roles they have played in our political system its not just Labor. We need to eradicate this from Australia there is no place here for them or their ideologies. I really hope this helps you understand how we have been deceived and how we have got to this point in Australia.
